What does Rudolf Steiner mean by the artificial Immunization against spirituality?

"The materialistic age is striving in certain circles to paralyze all spiritual development of mankind, to make it impossible; to make people reject, simply through their temperament, through their character reject everything spiritual, to regard it as foolishness. Such a current - it is already noticeable in individual people today - will deepen more and more. The longing will arise that it will become a general judgment: The spiritual, the spiritual is foolishness, is madness! - They will try to achieve this by bringing out vaccines against it, just as they came up with vaccines to protect against diseases, they will now come up with certain vaccines that influence the human body in such a way that it does not allow the spiritual inclinations of the soul a home. People will be inoculated against the disposition for spiritual ideas. At least that is what they will strive for: they will try vaccines so that people lose the urge for spiritual life already in childhood." ¹

"The soul will be abolished by a medicine. A vaccine will be found on the basis of a "healthy view", through which the organism will be treated as early as possible in its youth, if possible at birth, so that this human body
